Drexel Biddle, Jr., have leased for the summer the estate of Julian A. Ripley, in Brookville, L. I., where they will pass the summer and autumn. Mr. and Mrs. William Church Osborn will be for the summer at Forest Farm, Garrison on Hudson, and Mrs. Pierpont Morgan and Miss Anne Morgan will be at Cragston, in Highland Falls, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan have already gone to Matinecock Point, their place in Glen Cove, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Cross have decided to spend the summer in Southampton, as have Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Dickinson, who recently purchased a house there. Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Polk have taken one of the Wyllis Betts cottages and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Duncan Preston have taken the house of Dr. E. L. Keyes. Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Sherrill will be among the newcomers at Southampton for this season, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter H. B. Frelinghuysen of Morristown recently leased a place there for the summer. Mrs. Charles H. Mellon of Morristown and Mr. and Mrs. P. Stuyvesant Elliot are among others who have taken houses at Southampton.

Among the weddings of this week will be that of Miss Marie Duray, daughter of Mrs. Samuel Sloan Auchincloss, to F. de Saint Phalle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre de Saint Phalle of France. It will be celebrated on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the church of St. Ignace Loyola. The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother, 114 East Eighty-fourth street.

The bride will walk to the altar with her brother, Charles Duray. She will have her sister, Miss Agnes Guidet Duray, as her maid of honor, and the other attendants will include Mrs. Xavier Audibert, Mrs. Guy Emerson, Mrs. Jerome Alexandre and Miss Carolyn Williams of Morristown.

Miss Mildred Holmes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin T. Holmes, will be married to Henry S. Durand, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Stewart Durand of this city, in St. Thomas's Church on Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of the church, and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, 43 West Fifty-seventh street. The bride will have her cousin, Mrs. Frederick Todd of Youngstown, Ohio, as her only attendant, and Edwin T. Holmes, Jr., brother of the bride, will act as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes gave a dinner and dance for the members of the bridal party on Thursday night, and Mr. Durand gave his farewell bachelor dinner last night at the Yale Club.

An interesting wedding on Wednesday will be that of Mrs. F. Sands Russell and Alexander S. Webb at the home of the bride, 271 Lexington avenue, at noon. The ceremony will be celebrated very quietly in the presence of relatives. The engagement was announced recently.

Mrs. Russell is a daughter of the late James W. Sands. Mr. Webb is a son of the late Gen. Alexander S. Webb, for many years president of the College of the City of New York.

The wedding of Mrs. Janet I. Hicks of South Orange, N. J., widow of Louis Hicks, to Dr. Le Roy Sherman Edwards of Brooklyn will take place on Wednesday at the home of the bride, Mrs. Floyd Overhaugh of Catskill, N.
